FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Jo Fisher Executive & IMD International Search Group Announces 'Compass' as the new partner in Singapore

IMD International Search Group, a global executive search leader with offices in major markets across the world, has announced an addition to its Asia Pacific region with the appointment of Compass in Singapore:

Compass has been providing executive search services to clients in Singapore for the past 12 years spanning sectors such as IT/Telecom, Consumer and Industrial. Compass' multicultural team has an in-depth knowledge of the local market and is therefore an ideal intermediary between international clients and the talent pool available in this small and competitive market.

Alexander Hascher, Managing Director of Compass comments that "We are very proud to be a new partner of IMD as we view IMD as a global organization of carefully selected experts who deliver exceptional value in the field of executive search. The annual global conferences and workshops with the other IMD partners are exceptionally insightful into global trends providing partners with new ideas and strategies to improve our local business. We look forward to working closely with IMD partners around the world and will also focus on increasing IMDs footprint in Asia by introducing additional partners to the group".

Gerard Ketelaar, IMD Board Director who led the selection process in Singapore adds that "The Asian market is of great importance for the development of our organization. Through our new partner Singapore we now have the opportunity to serve our customers with the highest quality and experience in executive search in a fast-growing region".
